

Associate Membership

Associate Members are limited to individuals, partnerships, and corporations regularly engaged in the business of servicing the mechanical contracting industry.

In addition to endorsement by the MCA-EMO as an industry supplier, Associate Member dues of $500 per year include the following benefits for two designated representatives from your company annually:

- Invitation to an annual Associate Member meeting designed to foster strategic collaboration with Contractor Members
- Invitations to attend and sponsor annual special events—spring awards dinner, fall golf scramble and the holiday gala
- Invitations to other networking opportunities (e.g. Happy Hour, STL Hosts MCAA President)
- Opportunity to provide educational programming
- 2 complementary educational seminars offered through the MCA Training Center
- Member pricing on St. Louis Cardinals baseball tickets
- Inclusion of your company logo, contact information, and a link to your website in the membership section at mca-emo.com
- Additional sponsorship opportunities throughout the year